

Second call for papers for the conference

Equality, Growth and Sustainability - do they mix? Linköping University, Sweden, 25-26 November 2010

This conference is a forum for examining if and how questions of equality, growth and sustainability can be reconciled in organisations and implemented in general practice.

15 years after the Beijing Platform for Action this conference will provide academics, policy makers and practitioners with an international and interdisciplinary forum for exchange. The purpose is to explore and disseminate knowledge and experiences on gender equality, gender mainstreaming, diversity management, growth and sustainability, inclusion and equal opportunities. The ambition is to discuss these key concepts and issues from an intersectional perspective, and in theory and practice, in order to rethink and find new ways to move on.

Key note speeches will be delivered by Marina Blagojevic, Tryggvi Hallgrímsson, Jeff Hearn, Viviane Reding and Mieke Verloo. A panel discussion with Irma Erlingdsdóttir, Liisa Husu, Malin Rönnblom and Mustafa Özbilgin concludes the conference. Two kinds of interactive conference formats will take place: parallel paper sessions and workshops. A paper session contains academic paper presentations and you are welcome to submit an abstract. A workshop is a forum where you can listen to interesting presentations and take part in discussions. Both formats are of course open to all participants.

Extended deadline for submission of abstracts: 1 August, 2010. More information, submission details and registration at: <http://www.liu.se/genusforum/Konferens>

Welcome to Linköping!
